The Isenberg Undergraduate Consulting Group is a client-centric, student-run organization at the University of Massachusetts Amherst that provides advisory services across the domains of strategy, operations and marketing. Since the group was founded in 2015, IUCG has partnered with over 18 clients spanning the globe and has successfully delivered solutions to the most pressing challenges across the following industries: technology, financial services, manufacturing, healthcare, retail, and energy. This past fall, IUCG added two new leaders to the executive board, combined having 9 semesters of Analyst experience. In addition, the group welcomed the largest class yet of 8 students to it's selective Junior Analyst Development Program! Throughout the fall, IUCG partnered with 4 clients across 4 different industries and added capabilitiess in the biotechnology and real-estate space. IUCG's project teams delivered solutions to our 4 unique cases remotely while navigating the difficult COVID-19 Pandemic.
